

Mr. Tamás Bereczky

Born: 25.03.1967

Place of birth: Budapest

Education:

- 1991 ELTE Faculty of Arts, MA, graduated in English grammar and literature and German grammar and literature
- 2006- Open University, UK - Postgraduate degree course, BSc in Psychology
- 2006 Graduated as psychodrama director and group therapist
- 2011- ELTE University of Budapest, Faculty of Social Sciences, Multidisciplinary PhD Programme – Social Psychology

Languages:

German - advanced
English – advanced

French – basic Italian - basic

Professional skills:

1990- Works as the owner and managing partner of a translation and interpreting agency where he has obtained substantial experience with translating and interpreting legal, financial, pharmaceutical, business and political texts.

Providing regular translation and interpreting services to the President of Hungary, the Prime Minister of Hungary, the Minister of Finance of Hungary, the Foreign Ministry of Hungary and several other government organizations.

- 2006- Member of ECAB and European Aids Treatment Group
Works as project leader for training and other projects of EATG.
Regular minute taker of ECAB meetings.
- 2006-2008 Member of the Board of EPPOSI representing EATG.
- 2007- Works as psychodrama director and group therapist
- 2007- Works as trainer and treatment and rights advocate for PLWHA in Hungary.
- 2011- Publishes articles on treatment, pharmaceutical development and general information on HIV/AIDS and treatment on the internet and in several newspapers.
- 2011- Lecturer at the College for Interpreters of the Technical University of Budapest.
- 2012- PhD student at the Faculty of Sciences of ELTE University of Budapest. Topic of dissertation: The Social Psychology of HIV/AIDS
Member of the Board of Directors and Secretary of the EATG.

Others:

- Works as a journalist, proof-reader, lector
- Was working for Cinema movie magazine between 1992 and 2002
- Works as a blogger and community journalist
- Member of Mensa HungarIQa since 1997
- Former editor of SpeakUp Magazine